Our Prime Minister has given the slogan that Vocal for Local and That spirit is well maintained here. By the Government assistance, The work and sale of khadi is increasing through promotion and publicity, It is helping the villagers to become self-reliant. If every person in India buys at least one item of khadi So many people can stand on their own feet. For Gandhiji's Khadi Insistence is just as welcome today as it was in the past. Stimulation of Swadeshi will be the foundation of development of the same village. That is a matter of course.

WELFARE

The Organization comprises of employees. For stitching, hosiery, weaving and other departments there are 70 people involved. For spinning 150 charkha and 20 looms for weaving have been installed at different houses. A total of 250 employed families are currently employed with Khadi Gramodyog Mandal.

Khadi is an activity that can absorb
all the time
of all available
men and women and
grown-up children,
if they have faith.

Khadi is not only a cloth, but it is a thought;
which can modify the lifestyle of the society,
which can provide the platform to the purpose of accepting 'SWADESHI'

ACTIVITY DEPARTMENT

The Artisans of Khadi Gramodhyog Mandal are engaged in the following activities:

Spinning

Raw wool is sent to the nearby villages where spinning is done by the local women. They came to the institution once a week to take raw material and submit.

The conventional Charkha was used when the organization started in 1961-62 but the introduction of Amber Charkha resulted in upto four times production than the conventional Charkha. The fineness of yarns was achieved with the help of Amber Charkha thus improving the quality of the yarn as fine as 20 to 25 yarn counts.

Weaving (woolen)

Weaving is done by weavers in the campus only. A pit and farme loom is used for weaving producing various

All the process from refilling of yarns in bobbins and reels to Weaving is done.

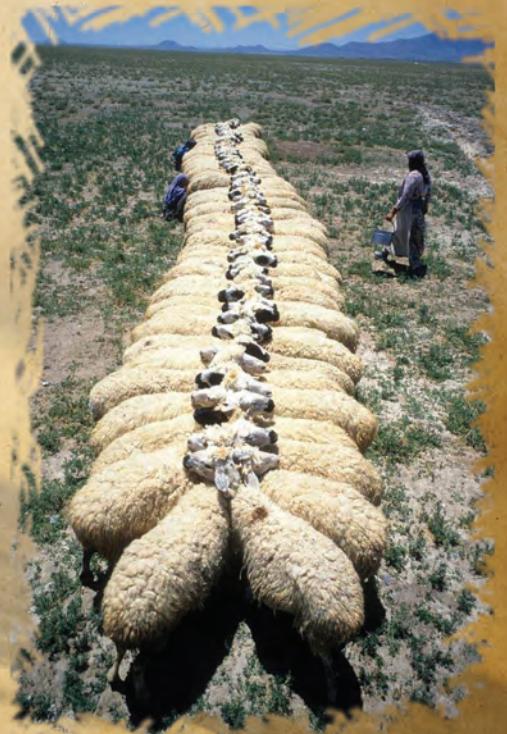

Charkha is used to refilling the yarns. The Beem(winder for wraping) is used for wraping in the

Knitting (woolen)

Initially Knitting was started by the organization but later it was switched to Marino. Marino wool is out sourced as the supply could not meet the demand by the in-house production.

Stitching

A Stiching department is setup for stitching, cutting and ironing. A cutting expert supervises the department to ensure best quality products.

Minimum required cutting is done by the cutting master and stitching is done for the Product development by the women artisans.

Dyeing & Washing

The wool dyeing technique is mastered by the artisans employed with the organization. Dyeing is mainly done for knitted and ready products.

The organization have in-house Winch & other Auxiliary machines. Apart from this a highly qualified dyeing master is also present to monitor the intricacies of dyeing.

Washing is also done to remove excess color and dirt and also to ensure the color quality before send it to selling outlet.

Regular orders are received for wool khadi products from government energy companies and corporations, including items like woolen jerseys provided by the Bhal Nal Kantha Khadi Gramodhyog for Gujarat Maritime Board, GETCO, MGVCL, DGVCL, GSECL, etc.

Australia's Mary Wool Charkha can be easily spun in a small count and Rs 250-350 per day can be earned by spinning on a Charkha. Pune comes from outside which is sent to villages like Nagnesh, Javaraj, Karamad and Sudhiyana for spinning. Here the artisans work from home and earn a living. About 250 women from different villages are involved in this work who earn their living from home. About 230 artisans working in the organization make various woolen items in the hosiery, woven weaving, dyeing, sewing department.
